May you be blessed by God's Word in worship today! If you are a first-time visitor, please fill out a visitor card and put it in the offering plate, and then make your way to the Chapel (in the back) after worship where we have a small gift for you.

Please stand as you are able*

For your Reflection

"The most glorious reason you exist is for the proclamation of the glory of God to the ends of the world. And that's more than having a nice life."

~David Platt

Glory to God

Hymn #240

Glory to God, glory to God, glory in the highest.
Glory to God, glory to God, Alleluia! Alleluia!

A Message for The Young and The Young at Heart

First Scripture Reading: Exodus 24:12-18 (NRSVUE)

The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and wait there; I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.” So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up onto the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, “Wait here for us, until we come back to you. Look, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.”

Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the Israelites. Moses entered the cloud and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Second Scripture Reading: Matthew 17: 1-9 (NRSVUE)

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became bright as light. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will set up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

*Statement of Faith		Quinn Caldwell
We believe in creating—something from nothing, a people where there was no people, family from strangers, identity from fragments, tools from weapons, evolution from stagnation, beauty from ashes.
We believe in God.

We believe in embodying—the call of the prophets, the judges' justice, the wisdom of the ancients, the discovery of the moderns, the love that drives the universe. We believe in emptying—hoarded wealth, stored resentment, undeserved power, privilege unearned. We believe in traveling—out to the wastelands, into halls of power, through the valley of the shadow, alongside the lonely and the strange.

We believe in Jesus.

We believe in strengthening—weakened spirits, fainting hearts, faltering resolve, fractured communities, stifled imaginations, broken bodies.

We believe in the Holy Spirit.

We believe in trying and failing, confessing and being forgiven.

We believe in gathering at tables and pools and diving in.

We believe in studying old books and listening to new stories.

We believe in singing the truth. And we believe that sometimes just being is the glory of God.

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Invitation to Generosity

Our God has revealed to us a law and a love that leads us into becoming God's own children. Therefore, let us gratefully give from that which has been given to us, our lives, our talents, and our possessions.

May it surround all your struggles
And everything you face.
And may you find your own way

Yes the time has come to say goodbye
May peace be with you now
