PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Church,

I was on my regular evening run a couple days ago and experienced something peculiar. I was bundled up like the Michelin Man to keep warm and I had my earbuds in tightly. It felt like my senses heightened as I departed from my driveway. The aroma of woodsmoke filled my nostrils and Christmas lights danced in my peripheral vision. I could hear the crunch of my earbuds within my ears as I weaved between patches of ice. I felt the warmth of my breath and the wet condensation on the scarf that was wound around face. When I got a couple blocks from my house, I looked up at the sky and was blown away by the brightness of the night. I stopped in my tracks, turned my music off, and stood in awe of the stars. The light was amazing. This experience reminded me of the importance of the star which led the Magi to the Christ Child after his birth.

The season of Christmastide begins with the light of the stars. Matthew's Gospel tells us that during the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, the wisemen (Magi) from the East came to Jerusalem, seeking out the child whom would be the Messiah. These foreigners came from another continent to see Jesus. King Herod sent them to get tabs on the newborn Messiah, but they refused to participate in his plans to locate him. The light of the stars led them to Christ, and they became light bearers for the world by refusing to be complicit in Herod's plan.

In the new year we will begin Epiphany – a season of light and revelation of who Jesus was. During Epiphany we will remember the Magi, who remind us of the diversity of Christ's church and people. We celebrate Jesus' baptism and we are invited to remember our own baptisms. We also recall Jesus' first act of public ministry – the miracle of the wedding at Cana. All these events shine a light on the person and ministry of Jesus.

Perhaps looking up at the stars will remind you of the importance of the faithful Magi who traveled from another continent to see Jesus. As 2019 comes to its end and 2020 begins, I wonder what the light of Christ might bring to us this year. My prayer for you and your families is that the light of Christ shines in your life. I also pray that somehow and somehow you might also be a light-bearer of Christ for someone.

Have a blessed Christmastide and a meaningful Epiphany.

With gratitude,

Pastor Dan

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

I've always liked the analogy that every Sunday is a mini Easter. It's truer I guess that every Sunday is actually an Easter anniversary isn't it? If we didn't set certain days aside to celebrate like birthdays, New Year's Day, or Easter's anniversary, all the days would start to blur and become the same. As human beings we tend to become complacent and easily bored, no matter what situation we are in or what/how much we have. We take our good health, our good wealth, and our loved ones for granted. Countless times when I've left a funeral I've thought, "boy that's a wakeup call. We never really know how long we will be on earth. I'm going to really appreciate my life, health, loved ones, and all my blessings more". One week later I'm complaining about not getting the coupon price on my double stuff Oreos. I have completely forgotten about all my blessings already and I'm worried about something so ridiculously irrelevant that I'm not focusing on the day itself.

New Year's Day makes us all stop and think about time doesn't it? We think about times past, times we anticipate are coming, and what we will do differently. A fresh start. A new outlook. A refreshed attitude. By January 4th I bet most of us are worried about the coupon price of the double stuff Oreos though, aren't we?

What if we celebrated every day as New Year's Day? After all every day is New Year's Day isn't it? Every day we're given a fresh start, we're allowed to take on a new outlook and refreshed attitude. We have a calendar that numbers days but if we didn't have that calendar what would differentiate one day from the next? Only the sunrise, right? Yesterday is gone. Tomorrow may never come. All we have is today. Celebrate it!

Dean Kothrade

? CONCERNS/? COMPLIMENTS

The Pastor/Parish/Personnel Relations Committee (PPRC) has been revitalized at Christ Church. The purpose of this committee is to create an opportunity for congregational feedback in the form of compliments or concerns regarding the Pastor or any church staff member. The committee consists of Randene Wick, Dick Gaeth, and Dean Kothrade.

As of June 1, 2019, the committee will only accept WRITTEN compliments/concerns to discuss. Please submit communications to: pprc@uccmke.org. If you prefer regular mail, there are pre-addressed envelopes available in the chapel and the plastic media rack located at the top of the Lenox Street steps to use when mailing a paper document.

All comments must be plainly stated, include dates and details of what the person would like to see more of or what they disagree with and how it could be done differently. We always seek constructive criticism in order to improve. The communication can only address a single compliment/concern.

All communications must be signed and sent directly to the Pastor Parish Relations Committee in order to be reviewed by the committee. After meeting to review compliments/concerns, the committee will reply to the person who presented a communication to us in the format received (e-mail/U.S. Mail). If you prefer that your name is withheld from the staff member you have a concern with the committee will honor that request. Only the PPRC members will know who sent the communication.

Thank you for your support in making this procedure succeed in strengthening our church family. We look forward to hearing from you.

Submitted by the PPRC Randene Wick, Dick Gaeth, and Dean Kothrade

MUSIC NOTES

Did you know that the Prelude music that is played prior to the service is not only a signal that the service will begin soon but can also serve as a time to quiet and center ourselves to prepare for worship?

As the Sanctuary doors close at this time please be mindful to keep your voices soft while socializing to allow everyone to enjoy the peaceful time while the Prelude music is being played.

The Psalmist writes in Psalm 46, "Be still and know that I am God."

THANKS

~With appreciation and gratitude, we accept a Christmas memorial in memory of mother Ann Schroeder from Kathy Schroeder.

~Thank you to all the bakers and those who purchased cookies at the Quilters' Cookie Walk on December 15. There was an amazing assortment of Christmas treats. Your efforts raised $442.00 which has been donated to Christ Church. In addition to the money we collected, we were able to provide Christmas treat bags of cookies for the shut-ins who were visited on Sunday afternoon by the carolers. Divine Intervention was grateful for the tray of cookies we delivered on Sunday afternoon. Peace and Plenty Quilters.

~Thank you to Pastor Dan and Andy Oren for arranging for us to have Santa as our special visitor on Sunday December 15th. Many children and "big kids" took advantage of getting a picture with Santa!

~Thank you to everyone who donated gifts to the BVCC Giving Tree. We were able to bring gifts for 30 kids and 15 adults to the BVCC on Friday December 14th. Thank you also for your nice cookie donations that will go to the elderly in our community.

A big thanks goes out to Mike Behling for delivering the gifts and cookies to the center on Friday December 14th.

~Thank you to all the wonderful ladies who hosted a table and provided delicious dishes to share at this year's Advent Tea. Your tables were beautiful, and all the had a wonderful time. Sincerely, Carol Dohoney

~Thank you to Carol Dohoney who chaired this years Advent Tea. The door prizes were very nice, and the speaker was humorous and thought provoking. It was a wonderful time!

~Thank you to everyone who donated food supplies and who helped assemble the Larry Under the Bridge (LUTB) bag lunches in December. We will continue this project in 2020 quarterly. Watch for announcements. Need information, please contact Jim Wick.
